

Resources for Patients with Chronic Kidney Disease

Renal Specialists of Houston is committed to educating our patients and their families about kidney disease. Kidney damage can often be stopped, or at least slowed, with medications and lifestyle changes. We encourage you to learn as much as possible about chronic kidney disease. Several helpful Websites are listed below. As questions arise, we look forward to answering them.

About Renal Specialists of Houston

Renal Specialists of Houston, P.A.

www.renalspecialists.com

Visit our Website and click on "Patient Information" to find educational materials for topics regarding medical issues that relate to the kidneys and nutrition, as well as helpful forms for recording health information.

About Kidney Diseases

American Association of Kidney Patients
www.aakp.org

American Kidney Fund
www.kidneyfund.org

Kidney Care Partners
www.kidneycarepartners.org

Kidney School
www.kidneyschool.org

National Kidney Disease Education Program
www.nkdep.nih.gov

National Kidney Foundation
www.kidney.org

Polycystic Kidney Disease
www.pkdcure.org

About Expenses Related to Treatment

Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services
www.cms.gov

Medicare
www.medicare.gov

Texas Department of State Health Services, Kidney Health Care Program
www.dshs.state.tx.us/kidney

About Treatment Options

Davita
www.davita.com

Fresenius Medical Care
www.fresenius.com

Global Dialysis
www.globaldialysis.com

Home Dialysis Central
www.homedialysis.org

LifeGift
www.lifegift.org

Life Options
www.lifeoptions.org

Transplant Living
www.transplantliving.org

United Network of Organ Sharing www.unos.org